

REGIONAL BRIEF

MIDDLE EAST

OUR COMMUNITY

The University is currently home to over 580 students who come from every country in the Middle East.

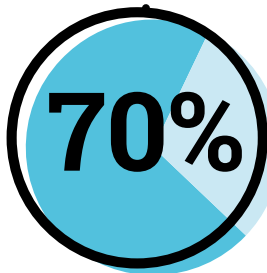

There are over 1500 alumni living and working in the Middle East.

RESEARCH OUTPUT

Over the past 10 years the University has had over 3,500 research outputs co-authored with Middle-Eastern partners.

70% of the research activity at the Islamic & Middle Eastern Studies department is classified as world-leading or internationally excellent.

ENGAGEMENT

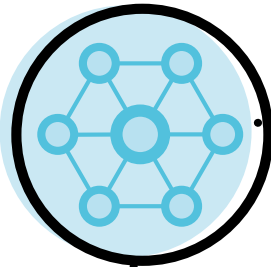

We are engaged in research activity in every Middle Eastern country.

MIDDLE EAST

A RICH HISTORY

Arabic has been taught here since 1912. We are also international recognised as a leading institution for the study of Persian and Turkish.

OUR NETWORKS

We have a long history of links in the region - we are a founder member of the British University in Dubai.

Al Waleed Centre is part of an elite network dedicated to the study of Islam in the contemporary world, which includes Georgetown, Harvard, and Cambridge.

ON-CAMPUS CULTURE

There are currently 6 student societies celebrating the diverse culture of the Middle East including food, languages, culture and religion.

- Societies include:
- Islamic
 - Middle Eastern
 - Persian
 - Turkish
 - Kurdish
 - Israel Engagement