Exchanges

As a University of Edinburgh student you have the opportunity to study abroad at one of our exchange partner institutions worldwide.

This guide contains our expected 2026/27 partners.

Information in this guide is correct at time of publishing, but may be subject to change.

About the teaching language:

- Where only English is listed, a full course load should be available in English. Students should always confirm that there are suitable courses in English in their specific subject area.
- Where two languages are listed, a full course load will not be available in English, and you will be required to evidence a minimum level of B2 in the other language of instruction (CEFR level B2).
- Where only a language other than English is listed, all or the majority of courses are taught in this language. You will be required to evidence a minimum of B2 in the language of instruction (CEFR level B2).
- You must provide evidence of your language proficiency in the spring before the exchange. If you do not achieve B2 level in at the time of the assessment you will not be able to proceed with the exchange.
- Please note: The teaching languages stated are based on information provided by our partner institutions but may change from year to year and at short notice. You should research your preferred partner university webpages before applying to ensure that you are aware of the language of instruction in your subject area.

You can find more information about language requirements online:

University-wide exchanges

University-wide exchanges are open to most students whose degree programme permits a period of study abroad.

There are some Programme-specific exceptions.

If you are taking a degree in the following subjects you are not eligible to participate in University-wide exchanges, and can only apply through the Subject-specific route:

- Business
- Chemistry
- Law
- Social Work
- Primary Teaching
- Art, Design, Architecture or Landscape Architecture
- Specific subjects in CMVM

Economics students can only attend certain pre-approved University-wide destinations. Refer to the School of Economics for more information:

uee.sharepoint.com/sites/EconomicsStudentHub/SitePages/Study-abroad.aspx

For more detailed information about Programme-specific exceptions:

global.ed.ac.uk/study-work-away/study-exchanges/eligibility

If you are applying to University-wide exchange you must identify an appropriate programme of study at the partner institution which meets your University of Edinburgh academic requirements.

Not all University-wide partner institutions will be suitable for all degree programmes: not all institutions may offer your degree subject; some institutions may reserve their most popular subject areas for home students only; exchange students may be limited in what they can take. It is your responsibility to make sure that your preferred host institution(s):

1. Offers a comparable programme of study which matches your subject area at Edinburgh, and;
2. Has more than enough appropriate, 3rd-year-level courses available for you to take there.

See our Partner Guidance Notes before you apply to find out more about our University-wide partners:

Subject-specific exchanges

Subject-specific exchanges are open to students studying in a particular School or Subject Area.

Courses in the listed subject area should be on offer at the partner institution.

Read our Partner Guidance Notes before you apply to find out more about our Subject-specific partners:

global.ed.ac.uk/study-and-work-away-service/study-exchanges/where-can-i-go/partner-guidance

For joint honours students:

- You should apply for Subject-specific exchanges under the subject in which your degree is based. This is usually the subject which comes first in the title of your degree.
- Check your course and credit requirements with your School Exchange Coordinators and make sure your preferred partner institution(s) will allow you to satisfy requirements for both subjects

If your degree programme sits within the School of Literatures, Languages and Cultures, you should also refer to the LLC Year Abroad Sharepoint:

uoesharepoint.com/sites/hss/llc/year-abroad

Important information about specific subjects

Archaeology

Listings for Archaeology can be found under 'History, Classics and Archaeology'.

Chemistry

All Chemistry exchanges are lab-based and do not require a language other than English.

Classics

Listings for Classics can be found under 'History, Classics and Archaeology'.

Cognitive Science

Students studying Cognitive Science are eligible for University-wide exchanges and for Subject-specific exchanges in Philosophy, Psychology, Linguistics, or Informatics. You must ensure that the chosen destination(s) have appropriate courses for your degree programme in consultation with your Exchange Coordinator.

English Literature/Language

These options are available to English Literature students based in the School of Literatures, Languages and Cultures, and to English Language students based in the School of Philosophy, Psychology & Language Sciences.

Linguistics

These options are available to Linguistics and/or English Language students based in the School of Philosophy, Psychology & Language Sciences.
