Over 630 students from 25 Latin American countries studied at Edinburgh in 2017/18.

Top destination in Scotland for students from Latin America, and 3rd university destination in whole UK for students from the region.

We have had 1300 applications to start in September 2018.

We have formal agreements with national and private funding bodies in Mexico, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil and Argentina.

Our partnerships with funding agencies provide financial support for over 200 students from the region to study in Edinburgh each year.

Almost £1 000 000 of Newton and GCRF funding across Latin America

Of the University's 47 Chevening Scholars in 2017/18, 36% were from Latin American countries.
REGIONAL BRIEF
LATIN AMERICA

OUR NETWORKS
We are a member of the Universitas 21- a global group of leading research universities. Only three other Russell Group Universities participate.

Edinburgh is an active member of the Coimbra group; working to forge stronger links with Latin America, including strengthening ties to research groups in the region.

OUR ALUMNI
We have 1,230 alumni from Latin America, with 7 Regional Alumni Contacts active across the region.

OUR RESEARCH
In the last 5 years the University of Edinburgh has collaborated on research with 200 institutions in Latin America.

OUR PARTNERSHIPS
Since January 2016, 230 staff and students visited Latin America for field work, research collaborations or international partnership.

We partner with the top 10 universities in THE Latin America ranking. We have agreements with the number 1 top-ranked universities in Brazil, Chile, Colombia and Mexico.

KEY STRATEGIC AREAS WHERE WE DEVELOP PARTNERSHIP
- Public Health
- Palliative Care
- Family Medicine
- International Relations
- Veterinary Medicine
- Animal Welfare
- Urban Justice
- Bioethics
- Renewable Energy
- Low-carbon futures
- Metal Recovery