REGIONAL BRIEF

SOUTHEAST ASIA & AUSTRALASIA

OUR COMMUNITY

1,520

We are home to over 1,520 students from Southeast Asia and Australasia.

5TH IN THE UK

The University is a top destination in Scotland and 5th top university destination in the whole of the UK for students from the region.

5,600 ALUMNI

There are over 5,600 alumni in Southeast Asia and Australasia. The first Alumni Club in Southeast Asia and Australasia launched in Singapore.

OUR PARTNERSHIPS

5,400 OUTPUTS

We have published 5,400 research outputs with partners in the region in the last 5 years.

30

We are partnered with over 30 institutions in Southeast Asia and Australasia, including top ranked universities.

National University of Singapore
Nanyang Technological University
University of Melbourne
University of Sydney
REGIONAL BRIEF

SOUTHEAST ASIA & AUSTRALASIA

A RICH HISTORY

John Crawfurd (1783-1868), alumnus of the University of Edinburgh Medical School, was the first Governor of Singapore in 1824 (now known as Resident of Singapore).

OUR NETWORKS

The University of Edinburgh is a member of Universitas 21 – a global group of leading research universities. Only three other Russell Group universities participate.

ON-CAMPUS CULTURE

There is a strong presence on campus with seven Southeast Asia and Australasia student-led societies.

- Australian Society
- Bruneian Society
- Indonesian Society
- Malaysian Students’ Association
- Singapore Students’ Society
- Thai Society
- Vietnamese Society